Weather To Be Hot and Humid

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hot and humid weather, with showers and thunderstorms, was the outlook for broad sections of the country today.

No general rain was in sight for the drought-stricken sections in the Northeast, where damage to crops was estimated in the millions.

Showers and thunderstorms continued during the night in the Middle Mississippi Valley with heavy rainfall in Southeast Iowa and Northeast Missouri. Falls measured nearly 2 inches in 2 hours in Knoxville, Iowa.

Sheppard Aide To Question Florida Con

DELAND, Fla. (AP)—William Corrigan, chief defense counsel at Cleveland's Sheppard murderer trial, planned to confront today a Florida convict who claims he did the killing.

Arriving here late Sunday, Corrigan said he gives credence to the confession of 23-year-old Donald Wedler, whose story of slaying Marilyn Sheppard has been branded a hoax by Ohio police.

Dr. Samuel Sheppard is serving a life sentence for the slaying of his wife although he protests he is innocent.

Corrigan was accompanied here by Fred Garmone, an aide. They said they expected to remain until they made thorough investigation of Wedler's claim.

Two Cleveland officers who interviewed Wedler last week said his confession was the 26th to the slaying and didn't add up.

Lie detector experts for the "Court of Last Resort," a private group of criminologists headed by mystery writer Erle Stanley Gardner, said they believed Wedler was telling the truth or what he believed to be the truth.

Sheppard was scheduled to take a lie test last week, but Gov. William O'Neill withdrew permission for the test after Wedler's statement was termed questionable by Gardner.

Skirts Shortened For Fall Fashions

PARIS (AP)—Short skirts just covered the knee and the bustine was busy in the Jean Patou collection displayed this morning as the Paris fall and winter fashion shows began.

The first fashion show was a collection which featured black lace and tight sheaths for evening and cocktail wear.

Patou showed short skirts last season and is sticking to his guns. The new collection has more bows than anyone could count.

Mild, Dry Weather Expected for Ohio

COLUMBUS (AP)—The weatherman says that after possible rain tonight or Tuesday, Ohio's weather should be comparatively mild and dry. Here is his forecast for the next five days:

Temperatures will average 2 degrees below normal; normal high 83-86, normal low 62-64. Turning cooler Tuesday and Wednesday, little change in temperature Thursday, warmer Friday and Saturday. Precipitation will average $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 inch as thunderstorms tonight or Tuesday.

Anderson Takes Over Duties Of Treasury Boss Humphrey

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey today handed over to Robert B. Anderson the management of the nation's finances.

The resignation of Humphrey, often called the "strong man" of the Eisenhower Cabinet, took effect when his 47-year-old successor was sworn in the Cabinet Room of the White House.

Humphrey, 67, is expected to become board chairman of an National Steel Corp. He has said the government should not be run by "dodging old men" because "there's no future for the Republican party in that."

His successor has crammed high honors and great responsibilities into his shorter life. Eisenhower picked Anderson to be secretary of the Navy in 1953, then made him deputy secretary of defense.

Born in Burleson, Tex., Anderson was just 31 when he became general manager of a $300 million cattle, oil, farming and real estate

Worker Pinned by Giant Screw

A FELLOW WORKER holds the victim's head with his foot as rescue workers struggle to release John F. Fire department and ambulance crews worked an hour and 20 minutes to free Lewis.

Former Washington C. H. Girl Now In Strife-Torn Guatemala

While the people of Guatemala are wondering just what the future holds for their country politically, the people of Washington C. H. today are wondering just what the position of a former Washington C. H. girl, her husband and two daughters is, now that President Carlos Castillo Armas is dead, the victim of an assassin's bullet.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Shaw and their two daughters, Terri, 17, and Dinah, 13, went to Guatemala 19 months ago when Shaw was one of a team of six Americans assigned by Klein & Saks, an independent counseling firm for government and business, to help organize departmentalize the Guatemalan government.

In that capacity, Shaw and his five associates were very close to the assassinated President Armas. No word has been heard from Mrs. Shaw, the former Miss Kathie Penn, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Penn, 442 East St., since the assassination of President Armas.

Mr. and Mrs. Penn are concerned over the situation in Guatemala, but said they hardly expected to hear from the Shaws because of the controls being exercised over all communications by the new regime.

Chandler, a 33-year-old Korean War veteran from Compton, Calif., and Duluth, Minn., took on a minimum fuel supply to hold down his plane's weight.

"My engine flamed out for lack of fuel as I taxied down the runway after the landing," he said. He estimated his plane flew faster than the speed of sound for "about half the way."

The B-57 race was one of the first events of a celebration marking the 50th anniversary of the U. S. Air Force. The celebration is sponsored by the Air Force Assn. and is scheduled to run for several days. The actual anniversary date is Aug. 1.

Fire Kills Woman, 52

NELSONVILLE (AP)—Mrs. Flossie Taylor, 52, died in a fire which gutted her home here Sunday.

The latest thinking in the care and treatment of the aged mentally ill has been incorporated into the plans for this building," said Dr. C. Earl Albrecht, the acting director of the Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

The new psychogeriatric building will care for mentally ill persons over 65 years old. It will accommodate 150 patients, 75 per cent of them ambulatory.

Bellefontaine Police Probing Death of Pair

BELLEFONTAINE (AP)—Police today are investigating the deaths of Frank C. Moxley, 52, Dayton, and Mrs. Alice Marie Price, 36, Chillicothe, whose bodies were found in Moxley's car near the Logan County Fairgrounds late Saturday night.

Police Chief A. D. Payden said Moxley apparently fired a revolver bullet into the woman, then shot himself in the right temple.

Fairground Deserter After Week of Activity

Another Fayette County Fair drifted into history shortly after midnight Saturday when the last of hundreds of exhibits, commercial displays and several truck loads of Midway equipment were packed up and moved out.

The first disturbance occurred at Calumet Park, where some 100 Negroes were holding a picnic. Police said a group of between 50 and 60 white persons began throwing stones at the Negroes.

About 25 persons, most of them Negroes, were injured, some seriously. Some 100 policemen answered the riot call and quelled the fighting.

Police estimated that some 3,000 persons witnessed the brawl but there were several other thousands in the big park seeking relief from the 90-degree temperatures.

Some 300 policemen, both white and Negro, were on duty in the South Chicago and East Side districts Sunday night and this morning as fresh rioting erupted. The districts, in the city's far south-east industrial section, are predominantly white.

MANAMA, Bahrain (AP)—An Omani communiqué said today troops of the Sultan of Muscat and Oman and loyal tribesmen were closing in on Oman rebels.

The communiqué, issued in Muscat by a spokesman for Sultan Said Bin Taimur, was released here by a British Foreign Office spokesman. It said:

"Some tribes are now moving with the support of the Sultan's forces to surround the rebels in mountain places in central Oman.

"Political and military action is now in preparation and will have rapid results which will bring the whole affair to an end."

The rebels hold an area roughly 25 by 15 miles and it has been described as almost entirely rugged mountains.

The rebels, led by Imam Ghaleb Bin Ali, who recently returned from Saudi Arabia, began the revolt 11 days ago in an attempt to set up an independent sultanate in Oman. British officials and the Sultan have accused Saudi Arabia of giving the rebels modern military weapons.

British planes continued to drop leaflets over the rebel-held area calling on the tribes to turn out traitors.

The chief British political officer for the Persian Gulf area said earlier the rebels had lost their momentum and were bottled up in an area centered on Nizwa.

Northeast Farmers Studying Conditions

SALISBURY, Md. (AP)—Some 200 farmers from 12 northeastern states met here today for a leadership conference. Drought and a violent rain storm which may have broken its long grip on the eastern shore were expected to be chief topics of conversation.

The storm, or a series of storms which hop-skipped around Maryland last night, dumped 18 inches of rain on this water-starved area.

What its effect would be on crops which still have a chance to survive the long dry spell probably will get a thorough discussion at the northeast conference of the American Farm Bureau.

Police said keys found under the bodies led to Ohlson's arrest. One of them fitted his front door.

405 Still Missing In Japanese Flood

TOKYO (AP)—Some 40,000 rescue workers today sought 405 persons still missing four days after heavy rains flooded wide areas of western Kyushu.

National police reported 381 bodies have been recovered so far.

Police also reported 3,681 injured in one of the worst flood disasters in recent years on the southern island of Kyushu.

The latest police count listed 152,251 homeless and 75,458 houses flooded.

Twelve more inches of rain fell on southern Kyushu Sunday, flooding more than 8,000 houses.

Weekend Accidents Fatal to 16 in Ohio

COLUMBUS (AP)—Sixteen persons died accidentally in Ohio over the weekend, 11 in traffic accidents.

Besides the traffic fatalities, a girl burned to death, a boy accidentally shot himself with a pistol, and a two-year-old boy was electrocuted.

Meanwhile, the National Safety Council reported that America's traffic deaths in the first six months this year were 17,620, a decrease of 2 per cent compared with the first half of 1956.

week. The only evidence of one of the biggest fairs here in years, was the litter of paper, and that was disappearing rapidly as the clean-up progressed.

Only signs of life were back around the horse barns. There, trotters and pacers were being blanketed and bandaged and loaded into vans and trucks to be taken to the next race meeting. By mid-afternoon few of those who were heading for the racing circuit remained.

MEANWHILE, hundreds of boys and girls and scores of adults were recuperating from the strenuous Fair Week.

This year's Fair was put down by the Fair Board, one of the best in years for three major reasons: (1) the Fairground was packed with exhibits and displays and a full educational and entertainment program was presented every day and night; (2) the attendance was up nearly 4,000 over that of last year; (3) the four-day harness horse racing program developed both speed and close finishes beyond even the hopes of the speed committee.

During the five days of the Fair there was a total of 22,409 paid admissions. This compares with 18,611 last year. However, it was pointed out that these figures do not include the hundreds who came on exhibitor's tickets.

The rebels, led by Imam Ghaleb Bin Ali, who recently returned from Saudi Arabia, began the revolt 11 days ago in an attempt to set up an independent sultanate in Oman. British officials and the Sultan have accused Saudi Arabia of giving the rebels modern military weapons.

At the same time, Frank E. Ellis, secretary of the board, handed Enright a contract for the Midway for next year's Fair. The occasion was not Enright's personal birthday; rather it was in recognition of his 50 years in this phase of show business, when he started at the Fair here 50 years ago.

Little remains to be done to bring the 1957 Fair to a close. There are a few premiums to be paid and the results of some of the judging to be recorded. But, already

Champ Outweighed For Title Match

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson today weighed 184 pounds and challenger Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson 192½ for their 15-round title fight at the Polo Grounds tonight. It is the most Patterson ever has weighed for a fight.

Approximately a half hour before the weigh-in, promoter Emanuel Lerner said that the fight would be held tonight despite the official Weather Bureau forecast of widely scattered showers this afternoon and early evening.

U. S. Wheat Lands in Poland But Natives Seek Cigarettes

GYDNIA, Poland (AP)—An American liberty ship unloaded a cargo of wheat at this Baltic port, but chief dockside interest was in the shipment of cigarettes.

The ship—the 9,000-ton Bucknell Victory—brought the wheat under the American-Polish credit agreement signed last month. Other U.S. ships are heading here with corn, cotton and other farm goods.

When two of the seamen first stepped from the ship, they were stopped by a green-hatted dock guard.

"You taking any cigarettes ashore?" the guard asked. They said yes. "Fine," said the guard, "perhaps you can spare me a pack."

On shore the Bucknell Victory's seamen found Gdynia and its twin port of Gdansk (Danzig) active and seemingly prosperous.

The streets are full of American cars, purchased by Polish seamen in Belgium for a few hundred dollars.

Poland, brought here as unofficial deck cargo and sold for four times the outlay—and sometimes even more—to taxi drivers and government officials.

Gdynia, one of Europe's most modern ports, was built between the wars or a French loan. It stood at the head of the "Polish Corridor," which gave prewar Poland an outlet to the sea and which was an object of Hitler's 1939 invasion. Although port installations were destroyed by retreating Germans, the city itself was not damaged extensively.

Gdansk is a different story. The former free city was razed by advancing Russians. It was once one of Europe's sights—a town of elaborately decorated 17th and 18th century merchants' houses clustering around the cathedral and waterfront.

Now the Communists, with regard for the past and disregard for economy, are reconstructing it in every detail.

Four Injured In Car Crash

Drivers Unhurt in Other Accidents

Four out-of-town youths are in Memorial Hospital here with serious injuries received about 1:50 a.m. Sunday in Ross County just south of the Fayette County line when their car careened off the road and skidded 320 feet.

In other weekend mishaps, a Washington C. H. man's car narrowly missed falling into Rattlesnake Creek near Buena Vista and a Jeffersonville boy smashed his car and a farm fence when he fell asleep at the wheel.

INJURED in Ross County were Charles Phillips, 17, and Jack Phillips, 19, of Fairborn, along with Grover Conley, 20, of Berdenfield, W. Va., and Ray Buchanan, 18, of Shively, W. Va. All suffered severe lacerations except Buchanan, who sustained a back injury. All were described Monday as in "good condition."

The younger Phillips was driving north on Route 35 when the mishap occurred, the Chillicothe State Highway Patrol post said. The car skidded off to the left side, slid 150 feet, then careened over to the right side where it careened 170 feet more. Investigation is incomplete.

Charles Tober, 48, of Washington C. H., escaped uninjured when his car's steering mechanism went out of order at the Rattlesnake Creek Bridge on the Greenfield-Sabina Rd. His auto climbed the side of the metal structure. The car fell back, by chance, onto the bridge. The car was damaged but Tober escaped unscathed.

Falling asleep was Richard Robinson, 19, of 8 Maple St., Jeffersonville. He ran off Route 729 about 3:15 a.m. Monday and crashed into a farm fence owned by D. E. Mulvihill.

Rubber Unions OK New Wage Boost

AKRON — United Rubber Workers Akron locals have unanimously approved new contract agreements, containing a 15-cent-an-hour wage package, with the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. and the Mohawk Rubber Co.

About 25,000 rubber workers voted here Sunday to accept the contract which runs until April 15, 1959 and grants the largest pay raise in the industry since 1946. Seiberling Tire & Rubber Co. is expected to reach agreement during negotiations here today. Seiberling is the only large rubber company which has not concluded negotiations.

Amateurs Quitting Tree-Felling Trade

LOS ANGELES — Francis Wilson and his wife, Muriel, are out of the tree felling business— even though they had a $50 average on their first job.

They were hired to cut down several eucalyptus trees on a vacant lot in the Hollywood Hills.

"I got the first tree down all right, although it came close to falling on a neighbor's porch," said Wilson, 41.

But he added the second "got away from us," crashed down on power lines and cut off electricity in the area for several hours.

"It was the first time I had ever tried to cut down a tree," Wilson confessed.

One, Dr. Charles R. Bentley, is in the antarctic. The other, Maurice J. Davidson is in the arctic. Both are working on research projects for the International Geophysical Year.

They reported that reception on their ham radios was as clear as a bell.

Bentley and Davidson both 26, are on the staff of Columbia University's Lamont Geological Observatory. Columbia told of the radio chat Sunday.

Driver Fined $125, Jailed After Rt. 35 Hit-Skip Crash

James Gilispie, 22, Route 1, South Solon, drew a total of $125 in fines plus 15 days in jail on three charges growing out of an accident on Route 35 at West Lancaster Saturday evening.

Gilispie appeared before Judge Max G. Dice in Municipal Court Monday morning. Six other traffic violators were fined and 17 other drivers forfeited bonds on an assortment of charges, principally speeding.

Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson said Gilispie's car crashed head-on into an automobile driven by Donald Howland, 508 Warren Ave., on West Lancaster, wrecking Howland's car and damaging his own.

Gilispie fled the scene in his own automobile but the alert deputy, called to investigate, was able to trail the fugitive by tire marks from a damaged wheel. He found Gilispie's car abandoned in an alley at Octa, traced the driver through the registration and went to Gilispie's home.

GILISPIE wasn't there, but members of the family brought him to the sheriff's office early Sunday.

Howland and members of his family riding with him escaped unharmed as did Gilispie.

The latter drew $50 and costs 15 days in jail for leaving the scene of an accident $50 and costs for reckless operation and $25 and costs for driving without a license. Judge Dice suspended his right to apply for a license for six months.

There will be reports on retail sales in the city, and the audience will be broken down into small groups for panel discussions of business problems.

The committee's promotional program will be outlined.

Driver Piles Up 17 Points in Afternoon

GEORGETOWN — An 83-year-old Chillicothe man picked up 17 drivers' license penalty points all at one time Sunday. Under the new Ohio law, 12 penalty points are sufficient to bring about a revocation of license.

The penalty points were accumulated as Mayor E. R. Fender of nearby Sardinia fined Frederick Moore $10 and costs on each of charges of driving to the left of the center line, failure to stop after two accidents and reckless driving.

CHICAGO — A nation-wide preparedness program to combat a possible epidemic of Oriental flu in the United States was announced Saturday by the American Medical Association.

Working with the U.S. Public Health Service, the AMA launched a special project to alert the nation's physicians—and the public.

The AMA acted after outbreaks of the Oriental flu in several cities, but stressed that so far there is "no immediate cause for alarm."

Dr. Harold C. Lueth of Evanston, Ill., chairman of the special flu committee, said:

"Rapid onset of the epidemic makes it mandatory to have plans prepared well in advance and to see that the 1,911 medical societies in the country are cognizant of the magnitude of the problem before the epidemic strikes."

Dr. Lueth said the AMA and the U.S. Health Service plan to carry on a cooperative public education program with the help of newspapers and radio and television stations.

"The epidemic may never strike this country," said Dr. David B. Allman of Atlantic City, A.M.A. president, in a statement.

"But the American Medical Association is anxious to have practicing physicians mobilized and alerted in case an outbreak does occur."

The Oriental flu is reported to have been relatively mild. It usually has been marked by a short period of fever, from three to four days, and sometimes by sore throat, aching, a dry cough and other symptoms of typical influenza.

No verified deaths from the disease have been reported in the United States, the A.M.A. said. Several drug manufacturers are producing a vaccine to combat the strain of flu virus from the Far East.

Outbreaks of the Oriental flu have been reported at a Grinnell, Iowa, youth meeting early in July, at the campsite of the recent Boy Scout Jamboree near Boy Scout Forge, Pa., and among Navy and civilian personnel at San Diego, Calif. Some other cities have reported cases.

At Springfield, Ill., a state health department official issued a warning to parents and Boy Scout officials to watch for flu symptoms.

At San Diego, the county health department estimated there have been 5,000 civilian cases of Asiatic flu in the past 30 days. Four deaths — reported as resulting from complications — were reported. The Navy reported 7,000 cases among Navy and Marine personnel, with no deaths.

The AMA said its flu committee plans to:

"Inform all physicians, through state and county medical societies, on how to deal with any Asiatic influenza epidemic."

"Urge state and county medical societies develop programs and plans to cope with any epidemic should it occur."

"Coordinate state and local programs with public health agencies and health departments."

Steel Industry Output Slump Not Serious

Metal Spokesmen Confident Fall Leaves Only Minor Bruises

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The steel industry thinks it has bottom in a fall that left few bruises.

The production slump has been relatively slight and orders are picking up, with high hopes held for a substantial increase in demand from that important customer, the auto industry.

Pleasant for steel stockholders are the profit reports on the first half of this year. Two out of every three of the nation's steel companies show earnings after taxes topping those in the same period of 1956.

Recently have the income statements of the steel industry had closer scrutiny, because of all the hullabaloo over inflation—and particularly the guessing on whether higher wages and higher prices even each other out on the profit and loss sheet.

The steel industry has operated in the first six months of 1957 on a basis of higher wages and prices than a year ago. The second half will be figured on a still higher level—labor costs and steel prices having gone up July 1.

The biggest company, United States Steel, will report Tuesday, but already 23 others have announced earnings after taxes for the first six months. Nine of them have slipped below last year's figures.

Combined they show profits of $283,535,299, compared with $275,415,500 in the same period of 1956, a gain of 3 per cent.

Comparison figures in the last six months of this year seem sure to be much more striking, although far less accurate, since the steel strike that started July 1, 1956, twisted statistics of the steel industry out of kilter for about three months.

All the spokesmen of the industry are unanimous in predicting that orders and output will pick up smartly this fall. They count on the new auto models to take sizable tonnage and they believe that inventories of appliance makers are getting low and orders showing signs of reawakening. Demand for structural steel and heavy plate has remained high right through the early summer slump in other steel production.

Frazzled Farmer Just Had Too Much Trouble

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Police arrested 46-year-old Oscar D. Foreman of Fountaintown when they found him stomping on the hood of his parked car and hammering the fenders with a rock.

The reason? He said he's worked himself to a frazzle on his farm, which was damaged badly by recent heavy rains, and then when he tried driving in Indianapolis traffic his nerves just wouldn't take any more.

Pedro is a large yellow cat owned by Miss Ilo Larrimer of Bloomingburg—and thereby hangs a tale.

Pedro was raised from a kitten, and while Mrs. Charles Larrimer, mother of Ilo, was living, she permitted the cat to enter and leave the house almost at will.

Following Mrs. Larrimer's death Pedro was not permitted to have free access to the house as usual, and after a month of so he disappeared.

That was four years ago, and Pedro vanished so completely that it was generally assumed he was on the veranda.

However one morning recently when Ilo went to the front door there was Pedro lying contentedly on the veranda.

When Ilo exclaimed:

"Pedro, where have you been?" the cat went wild with delight and showed in every way how glad he was to be back home.

While Pedro was gone, Ilo obtained a dog, and at first the dog did not take kindly to Pedro, but within a short time they accepted each other as friends and are now real pals.

In the meantime Pedro is very much at home, and has his owner wondering if he went away because he was not wanted; or whether someone hauled him away and he was not able to find his way back until recently. I wish that cat could talk!

BIG FIELD SOYBEANS

What is believed to be the largest field of soybeans in Fayette County contains 140 acres, and is on the Melvin Bush farm on Carr Rd., two miles northeast of Jeffersonville.

The beans were planted starting June 6, and are now in bloom, with every indication of a bumper crop if weather continues favorable.

The Bush farm contains 212 acres, and most of the remainder is in clover.

The beans are the Lincoln variety known as good yielders and the size of the field has been attracting a great deal of attention.

WILL OPEN BYPASS

I note that the $3,161,717 by-pass project on Route 23, at Circleville, is to be opened around Oct. 1, with appropriate ceremonies.

The new bridge on Route 22, over the Scioto River, which was part of the big project, was opened several weeks ago.

The bypass is 6.3 miles in length and takes Route 23 from the main street of Circleville around the town on the west side, and as the by-pass is four-lanes, like the remainder of Route 23 from near Columbus to Portsmouth, the usual safety circle to enter if near the east end of the Scioto River bridge will be part of the project.

TO HEAR ABOUT MURALS

I have just received a letter from Stephen F. Willard, treasurer of the Willard Family Assn., who visited here June 24 to see the paintings of Archibald M. Willard in the Court House. The letter states that when the family reunion is held Aug. 31, he will tell the large number of Willards and their descendants of the paintings here, done by their kinsman who produced the "Spirit of '76" "The Minute Man", and other notable pictures.

During his trip through Ohio Willard obtained additional information regarding the famous artist.

Several Willard relatives already have viewed the murals here, which were identified less than a year ago, and many visitors stop here to see the paintings, some of them coming from long distances.

Pitcairn Islander Saved by Plasma

HONOLULU (AP)—Plasma from a Liberian freighter probably saved the life of Mrs. Nancy Clark, a British subject on lonely Pitcairn Island, the U.S. Coast Guard says.

The freighter Scherzo delivered the plasma. Mrs. Clark, who was reported dying from an ulcer condition, is now improving.

The life and death race to the isolated island started July 22 after an amateur radio operator here picked up an emergency call from Pitcairn. The island is 3,000 miles southeast of Hawaii and has no landing facilities for planes. Seaplane landings are usually risky because of rough seas.

NEVERTHELESS, the blank vote total of 1,863,992 ran second to the party which polled the highest total—the People's Radical party, led by reformist Ricardo Balbin, with 1,927,663.

Nationalist Arturo Frondizi's leftwing radicals trailed Balbin by almost 250,000 votes. Frondizi, the only announced candidate for president, pleaded for Peronists to vote for his party.

The Communists, who had their own ideas about reforming the government, received about 207,000 popular votes, far more than they ever received previously.

Aramburo said the constitution should be modernized to restrict presidential power so as to bar the rise of future dictators. He promised the assembly a free hand to make any change it sees fit.

With more than 7½ million votes counted, pro-reform parties held a two to one lead in the popular vote and appeared headed for a combined working majority in a new 205-member constituent Assembly. Boastful Peronists suffered a setback.

Unofficial calculations thus far in the complicated proportional representation system gave the pro-reformists at least 75 seats to the anti-reformists 35. The faction with at least 103 seats will control the Assembly.

Peronists had called on their followers to vote blank to give the exiled ex-dictator a moral victory. He had boasted from Venezuela a few days ago he would receive 75 per cent of the vote. The nearly complete returns showed 24 per cent blank.

Bull Meets Death At Bloodless Fight

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Death came to a bull at a bloodless bull fight, staged here over the protests of a legislator whose bill banning such shows becomes law Sept. 11.

The bull, running wild between the grandstand and a five foot wood wall enclosing the ring was pursued by a sheriff's car and a fairgrounds truck. The truck ran down the bull, breaking its leg.

Robert C. Hall, Santa Clara County humane officer, fired two shots and killed the injured animal.

11th Nuclear Test Delayed for Day

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP) — Today's scheduled nuclear shot, 11th in the current test series has been postponed until 4:45 a.m. Tuesday for technical reasons.

The atomic energy commission said the weapon, a below nominal tonner shot, wasn't ready on time.

A number of military and civilian experiments are planned in conjunction with the test. News-men will watch the blast from News Nob, about 13 miles from ground zero.

Ohio Litterbugs Target of Drive

COLUMBUS (AP) — The Ohio Department of Highways has stepped up its campaign against persons who litter state roads.

During the first five months of the year 153 persons were arrested on charges of willfully strewing debris on roadways. During all of last year there were 280 arrests.

A department spokesman said there was a conviction in nearly every case. A state law provides a $50 fine or 30 days in jail or both.

Still Plenty of Adventure In World, Adventurer Says

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — There is still a lot of new adventure to be squeezed out of this world, says television's Jack Douglas.

He's done a lot of squeezing himself in nearly 200 films of the "I Search for Adventure" series, which goes into its fourth year next week.

But, he says, the surface has already been tapped.

To emphasize, he came up—with practically no prodding at all—with a list of what he considers the world's 10 greatest adventures.

Some of these have been filmed with still cameras and some by governmental organizations, but there have been no motion pictures of them seen by the public as far as Douglas knows.

1. Life on Pitcairn Island among the descendants of the men who staged the mutiny on the Bounty.

2. Ascent to the rim of Mt. Iztalco in El Salvador. This volcano has been erupting every 15 minutes for 175 years.

3. A North Pole-to-South Pole airplane flight.

4. Underwater exploration of the Sea of Galilee and the Dead Sea.

5. Exploration of the vast French caves in the south of France.

6. Exploration of the top of Devil's Mountain in Venezuela which was the locale of Arthur Conan Doyle's book, "Lost World."

7. A voyage through the Northwest Passage.

8. Climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro in Africa.

9. Exploring the Afghanistan Jungle, the meanest and least-known jungle in the world.

10. Life with a Gypsy caravan in Spain or France.

"I'd just about give my right leg to get any three on that list," says Douglas.

But, he's not about to finance any expeditions to get them.

"That isn't the way we handle the program," Douglas explains. "Our films come from amateurs and in that way we are able to maintain the personal touch on which our appeal is based."

A Proposed Law That Would Really Help

It has been noted many times here in Fayette County, and in similar localities over our nation, that over the years the problems of small business have been discussed and debated in almost every detail and from nearly every point of view.

Various legislative programs have been proposed to improve the position of small business enterprises with reference to effect on our national economy as a whole.

Nearly all of these programs invariably put tax reforms of one kind or another at the top of the list.

Now David M. Molthrop, a director of the Conference of American Small Business Organizations, has written an unusually interesting study of tax systems, existing and proposed, as they affect these businesses.

Most of the proposals, in his view, do not adequately meet the problem. Some deal only with technical and relatively minor matters. Others would provide relief only to small groups, or would simply shift tax burdens to other business, or would introduce additional complex gimmicks into already complicated tax law. Others still would "provide immediate relief for the smallest corporations, but at the expense of growing corporations."

The basic problem is a simple one. An authority has expressed it succinctly in these words: "If you haven't got, a and can't get, enough money to stay in business, the other problems don't matter. And if, despite sound operations, you are short of money for needed expansion, the chances are that the only reason is the federal income tax, which drains off growth money from business earnings and dries up outside sources of venture capital. If nothing is done about this, your children will have fewer and poorer job opportunities than you have."

In Mr. Molthrop's view, the only bill which has been introduced in Congress which really meets this basic problem, by providing a realistic means for reversing the trend and re-establishing a moderate and reasonable level of income tax rates, is H. R. 6452, generally known as the Sadlak Bill because of its sponsor—Representative Sadlak of Connecticut.

The fundamental principle of the bill, as expressed by the congressman himself, is to use "revenue growth to reduce excessive income tax rates instead of to support increased government spending." It would reduce the taxes on individuals and businesses in all the brackets.

Individual tax rates now go to 91 percent and corporation rates to 52 percent. The bill would cut these top rates to 42 percent over a five-year period, with a provision that this can be extended over nine years if necessary to avoid an unbalanced budget.

Mr. Sadlak has developed his plan in full detail, and has shown how such reductions are possible, largely because of the growth in expected revenues that will come from industrial expansion, and can be accomplished without depriving the government of needed revenue.

The Sadlak reforms, of course, are not confined to small business. They would work to the benefit of large business too, and to the benefit of every taxpaying family. But it is interesting that a leader of organized small business should find that this is the best of all programs yet offered—and superior in every way to programs and palliatives which take a limited and narrow view of the tax problem.

Jim Cagney Happy as Farmer

NEW YORK (AP)—"I can think of nothing better for anybody than a busy life on a farm," said Jimmy Cagney, whose 75 movie roles enabled him to become a country gentleman.

"It's the most natural way to live. It's not so far removed from reality."

"I've been country-crazy myself since I was 5."

Gentleman Jim, the farmer, had to fight his way out from city streets to a place on the land.

Born in Manhattan's Lower East Side, son of an Irish saloonkeeper who died young, Cagney went to work as a copy boy for the old New York Sun at 14. His first job in the theater was impersonating a chorus girl.

He knew many a lean year as a vaudeville hoofer and Broadway actor before he won film immortality in 1930 by grinding a grapefruit in Mae Clark's face in "Public Enemy." Then came the golden deluge. But Jimmy, who was making $150,000 a picture as long ago as 1937, is glad that neither his son, James Jr., 17, nor his daughter, Cathleen, shows any interest in show business.

"It's a rough life," said the little redhead who graduated years ago from the roughneck roles that first won him fame.

"My boy is interested in farm genetics and Cathleen all her life has wanted to be a veterinarian. That suits me fine."

Cagney, who still dances daily to keep in shape, has plenty of pavement-free land now to rest his feet on. He has a 600-acre horse ranch in California, a 700-acre dairy farm with 90 cows near Millbrook, N. Y., and a 200-acre estate on Martha's Vineyard, where he likes to spend the summer just watching the grass grow.

Jimmy takes his farming seriously. He's trying to cross-breed Scottish highland cattle with conventional dairy cows to produce cattle "that need no barning and no winter feeding."

"It's a great mistake to show the face too often," he said. "Let them see you too often, and I don't care who the individual is, he'll go by the boards."

Stravinsky Was Right

More and more the summer festival becomes not only a musical treat but also a fashion. And each year, it increases in number and variety. The Shakespeare festivals in Stratford, Conn., and in Canada, are unfolding the virtues of the bard to generations that have not known the great actors of the 19th century up to 1952, whose careers in the theater reached their glory when Hamlet or Juliet was achieved.

Who, who ever heard them, can forget Sothern and Marlowe or Ellen Terry or Richard Mansfield?

Today, there is a resurgence of the live theater, as it is called in contrast with movies and television, and actors and actresses who are accustomed to the fabulous salaries which these commercial media are willing to pay, turn to "Off Broadway" or "On Broadway" or even summer stock to be themselves and not the shadow of a director or even a banker who has sunk his money in a tin can full of film.

So the summer stock companies proliferate all over the United States in out-of-the-way places where it is possible to play without paying so much for stage hands and stand-ins and similar who add little to the show but "On Broadway" can close the theater down and end the career of author and actor.

The music festival is also proliferating, but it involves much more than the theater, for a symphony orchestra consists of at least a hundred persons, not including guest conductors and choruses. It takes considerable organization and housing to move such an army about.

I usually go to the summer festival at Tanglewood which is now a hoary institution on the road to Lenox, Mass., where Hawthorne wrote his "Tanglewood Tales" and not far from the Stockbridge of the Sedgwicks and the Pittsfield of Oliver Wendell Holmes, the elder, who wrote of the breakfast table as his son wrote decisions for the stage.

Either the bankers have no faith in the credit of the country or we are being robbed. Not since the worst days of the depression, in 1933, has the government of the United States been required to pay such a high rate of interest.

Therefore, Stravinsky was right even if he said it on a cymbal.

Woman, 74, Trapped 8 Days in Bathtub

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mrs. Betty Schardt was reported gaining back her strength today in a hospital following her eight-day ordeal of being trapped in a bathtub.

The 74-year-old widow was found after neighbors, noticing a stack of newspapers on her doorstep, called police. She had fallen paralyzed into the empty bathtub, but her cries for help were drowned out by a blaring television set.

Hospital attendants said her condition was "surprisingly good."

Are You a Victim Of 'Nasal' Panic?

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Are you tensed up, disoriented? Maybe you're a victim of nasal panic.

So says Dr. Maruice Cottle, a Chicago ear, nose and throat specialist.

Dr. Cottle says that breathing deeply through the nose in front of an open window "produces intoxication and a feeling of well being."

"If your nose isn't working, you suffer nasal panic and disorientation," he said, adding: "Never look down on your nose. Be proud of it."

Statistics Show Victory Of Vaccine Over Polio

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

LAST year the United States reported in Chicago last year. Of this total, 835 persons developed infantile paralysis for any single year since 1947. The rate was 9.2 cases per 100,000 population. For the nation at large, it was not a polio year.

Chicago, on the other hand, had the second highest incidence rate (29.2 cases per 100,000 population) for any year since 1911 when we began keeping poliomyelitis records.

Low Fatality Rate

Yet during this same 12-month period, Chicago had one of the lowest fatality rate (3.2 deaths per 100 cases reported) in the history of polio record keeping.

Throughout a 16-week polio outbreak last summer, the Chicago Board of Health and private physicians administered a total of 1,470,520 doses of Salk vaccine in an effort to stem the tide of polio and thus had an opportunity to conduct a pilot study on the effectiveness of the vaccine.

Results of Test

Let me tell you what we learned during this first mass test of this new vaccine under emergency conditions.

First and most important, of course, the upsurge did not reach epidemic proportions.

Our yardstick for measuring the seriousness of an outbreak defines an epidemic rate as 35 or more cases per 100,000 population.

There were 1,111 cases of polio.

No Teeth in New Stray Dog Program

AKRON (AP)—The public welfare committee of City Council has taken a good strong stand against this stray dog. But not too strong.

It has framed, for presentation to City Council this week, an ordinance directing that a city dog warden seize and place in a city year before an appropriation can be made.

would supplement the functions of the county dog warden's office.

There is one small catch to this proposition: There is no provision in the city budget for hiring a warden, and it may be another year before an appropriation can be made.

He said revenues of $252,000,000 were reported in 1956 and spending of $230,988,791. Spending was up more than $18 million over the 1955 expenses.

He said these reports covered only operation maintenance and interest. The counties had nearly $72 million additional in non-operating income, including the proceeds of bond issues.

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—This week's Senate fight on civil rights involves voting rights. But the argument is on whether a person charged with contempt of court should be tried by a judge or a jury.

This is an ABC on it.

The civil rights bill proposes that when someone interferes with individuals' voting rights, the attorney general can ask a federal judge to issue an order to stop it. The person disobeying can be charged with civil contempt or criminal contempt.

Roughly, this is the difference: Charging a man with civil contempt is intended not to punish him but to make him comply with the court order while there is still time.

The criminal contempt charge based on willful disobedience is intended to bring punishment after it is too late to comply.

Say Registrar Jones stalls on obeying a court order to register 100 Negroes. The attorney general tells the judge. Election day is still weeks away. The Negroes could still vote if Jones registered them.

The judge tries Jones for civil contempt and, finding him guilty, slaps him in jail for an indefinite period. Jones can get out as soon as he says he will obey the court order and register the Negroes.

But said Jones has stalled until after election day and that the attorney general then tells the judge. It's too late for the Negroes to vote now. The judge tries Jones now for criminal contempt.

If he finds Jones guilty, he sends him to jail with a definite sentence. Jones now can't get out by saying he'll comply. It's too late for compliance. The election is over. Jones is simply being jailed as a punishment for disobeying.

But there's a point that should not be overlooked here:

Say that Jones—with election day still weeks away—is jailed for civil contempt to make him obey the order while there are still time.

But suppose Jones, determined not to let the Negroes register, sits it out in jail until after election day, when it would be too late to register them, thus clearly refusing to obey the court.

The judge will have to release him after election day—but he can now try Jones all over again, this time on a charge of criminal contempt.

The judge will have to release him after election day—but he can now try Jones all over again, this time on a charge of criminal contempt.

tempt, to punish him for disobeying. This time he would give him a definite jail term.

Southerners and their non-southern supporters, argue that a jury trial in a criminal action is so sacred that it must be guaranteed and preserved.

If they protest against the bill, demanding that it be amended to provide a jury trial—and not trial by judge alone—when a man is charged with criminal contempt.

They don't argue for a jury trial in civil contempt.

But trial by judge in contempt cases is not new. There are 28 federal laws permitting it. There is some variation under state laws on whether—in criminal contempt—a man should be tried by the court or by jury.

The bill's supporters contend that a judge in voting rights cases should be able to try himself and without a jury for both civil and criminal contempt. And for this reason:

The bill's purpose is to protect people's voting rights, not just to punish someone. Therefore its primary purpose is remedial and not punitive. But the judge should have the power, to strengthen the authority of his order, to punish anyone disobeying him.

The bill's supporters argue further:

If a voting registrar reflects the attitude of his community—in not wanting Negroes to vote—he could disobey a court order until election is over, knowing he faces criminal contempt charges, but hoping a jury of his neighbors will acquit him.

He couldn't have such hope—and therefore such incentive to disobedience—if he faced a trial by the judge alone.

Capital Hostess Planning To Tour Europe with Sons

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gwen Cafritz, indefatigable capital hostess, has laid aside party-planning for a family project this summer. With her wealthy realtor husband, Morris, she is taking their three sons on their first tour of Europe.

She says she finds the prospect more exciting than any of the celebrity stridden super wingdings she tosses. The emphasis, says the Vienna-born socialite, will be on the history and culture of the continental capitals to which they will pilot the boys.

Gwen says she just can't wait until she sees how her sons, Calvin, 26, Carter, 26, and Conrad, 18, react to the sights of Paris, such as Notre Dame, the Louvre and other art galleries.

"I would like to show them all the wonderful things through my eyes," she told me amid preparations for a July sailing on the Liberte.

"Then we're going to Vienna and Venice," she went on. "Imagine seeing these for the first time? It will be fantastic. I've spent half my life in Europe and I want the boys to get the spirit of the whole thing. I want to teach them, I will make speeches. It will be tremendously broadening."

The family will also spend some time in Rome and on August 1 will go to Monte Carlo for several weeks' stay before returning to Washington.

Mrs. Cafritz says she has been warned that some of the long-hair aspects of the sojourn she planned for her handsome young sons might not take. She said she'd been told to be prepared to laugh at some of her sons' reactions. "They've all been exposed to art and culture all their lives," she argues. "On the whole, I think they'll get a great deal out of their travels. We decided to make the trip this year while none of the boys is in the service and none is married."

Who Will Be Capital's

No. 1 Hostess Next Fall?

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Folks who like to ponder such trifles are beginning to wonder just who will be tagged the Capital's "No. 1 Hostess" come fall when partying again becomes a major preoccupation of local socialites.

Publicity-wise Perle Mesta has held the title despite brisk competition for the position from glamorous Gwen Cafritz. Now Perle and Gwen both face formidable opposition from two elegant ladies, both newly ensconced in beautiful homes, and one of whom, at least, has more worldly goods than both Perle and Gwen together.

There's the fabulously rich cereal heiress, Marjorie Merriweather Post, who despite the ballyhoo centering on the others, has long been considered by the choosy set as Washington's most distinguished hostess. Handsome, genteel Mrs. Post shuns the headlines and obviously has little taste for title-gathering.

Then there's a comparative newcomer, Mrs. Maryland McCormick, widow of the late Col. Robert McCormick, who was editor-publisher of the Chicago Tribune. Mrs. McCormick is renovating a home in Washington's exclusive Georgetown section. She expects to be "at home" the first of September, following a trip abroad.

Mrs. Post, who is planning an ocean cruise and a sojourn in the Adirondacks before settling down in her new home, gave Washingtonians a preview of the palatial Georgian residence she purchased about two years ago after her divorce from Joe Davies, former U. S. ambassador to Russia.

Mrs. Post's guests at that shindig included both hostesses Mesta and Cafritz, now on "speaking terms" after their forced meeting at Perle's resounding splash in the Philadelphia social pond last winter.

"Hillwood," Mrs. Post's new residence, set high on a hill, enjoys the same panoramic view as the spectacular modern abode that wealthy realtor Morris Cafritz built.

In some respects, Hillwood bears resemblance to Hostess Mesta's impressive and comparatively new residence in Spring Valley. Both

DR. J.

DEAR M. H.:

In all probability your life-style will be more nourishing, emotionally, and circumstances will begin to introduce conditions nearer to your heart's desires, after you have learned to peacefully accept things as they are, in the here-and-now, imperceptibly as it is.

It seems likely that your "trouble" (as you call it), the factor that keeps you frustrated and lonely, has to do with restless driving inner urgency. That is, with tensely wanting and straining after more of life than you have.

When questing for his "better half," the average man tends to evade instinctively the lone-woman who seems anxiously needful of something she hasn't got. And if she feels that way about her status quo (from the emotional, social or economic angle), no amount of pretense is going to give the male a different impression. He is going to sense and shrink from her demanding under-tones of her character.

In a brochure titled "The Love that Waits for You" (meaning God's love), Bishop Fulton J. Sheen stresses the importance of the now-moment, if rightly lived. "Each second of life has its peculiar duty," he writes, "regardless of the appearance that moment takes. The now-moment is the moment of salvation. Each complaint against it is a defeat; each act of acceptance a victory."

The now-moment is the individual's school-of-life, his textbook and lesson, the occasion of acquiring wisdom uniquely applicable to his soul's growth. Also, God's will for us—the road to wholeness of life—is manifested in the now-moment, with all its attendant duties and trials, he says.

Don't kick against the goad of circumstance. And don't be always comparing yourself to others, as to qualities, attainments, denials, etc. Thus you'll become infinitely more restful to know—hence more magnetic to happiness.

I am not in need of masculine protection, just mainly cooperation and companionship. My personality reflects few or none of the qualities that appeal to male vanity. I'm not helpless, or stupid, or fragile. I am lot dure, not naive, and not clever; enough to be a good actress. I am not without a good measure of strength (both physical and moral). Yet my emotional needs are basically the same as other women's.

I've been told by members of both sexes that I have everything a man could want in a woman. They take for granted that I prefer the status quo. Little do they know! What really is my trouble?

Gene Conley Brings Grins To Milwaukee

Braves Retain Lead;
18-Year-Old Pitches
1-Hitter for Cards

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The good burghers of Milwaukee likely will concede the Cardinals have a beauty in Von McDaniel. But if they're beckoning to their own Gene Conley today with their widest grins of the year, who can say they don't have a point?

Almost buried beneath 18 year old Von's brilliant one-hitter Sunday that touched off St. Louis double-header sweep of Pittsburgh was another big game from Conley that kept the Braves in first place in that torrid National League scramble.

In a month, the 6-8 right-hander a native Oklahoman like McDaniel, will be back to the form that made him one of the league's toughest a few seasons ago. His six-hitter enabled the Braves to defeat New York 5-3 and split a double-header with the Giants. It was his fifth victory in his last six decisions—all since he found the combination back on June 26.

With McDaniel's one-hit masterpiece winning the first game 4-0 and Joe Cunningham's 11th-inning homer the second 9-8, the Cardinals chopped Milwaukee's lead to half a game. The Braves had lost the opener to ex-mate Johnny Antonelli's six-hitter 2-0.

Brooklyn, with Johnny Podres winning his ninth, beat Cincinnati 7-2 to move within 1½ games of the top and drop the Redlegs 2½ games behind Milwaukee in a fourth-place tie with Philadelphia. The Phils had a happy day in Chicago, topping the Cubs 3-2 for Curt Simmons' 10th and 7-1 as rookie ace Jack Sanford won his 14th against three losses with a six-hitter.

Chicago's second-place White Sox moved up to within 3½ games of the front-running New York Yankees in the American League, defeating Baltimore 4-3 while the Yanks settled for a split in a 7½-hour double-header with Detroit. Lou Sleater's clutch relief saved the first for the Tigers 6-5, but Bill Skowron's run-scoring triple off a weary Billy Hoeft beat Detroit in a 15-inning nightcap.

Ted Williams, his bat mark up to .376, slammed his 29th home run, a double and two singles to lead a Boston comeback that beat Cleveland 9-8; and Kansas City won twice from Washington, 6-2 and 3-2 in 11 innings.

The Braves broke out with four runs on four hits in the fourth inning to win for Conley. Willie Mays hammered six hits in eight trips, four in the first game.

Gene Baker's double with two out in the second inning was the only hit off McDaniel, who didn't permit another baserunner in running his record to 5-2. Hoyt Wilhelm won his first in relief as the Cards scored three in the nightcap ninth to tie the score and set the stage for Cunningham's winning homer off Nelson King.

Carl Furillo's grand-slam homer, eighth of his career, cost Cincinnati's Brooks Lawrence his seventh loss in 18 decisions and was more than enough for Podres to win his ninth.

The Phils got two RBIs from Gran Hamner in each game and a decisive three-run homer from Ed Bouchee in the second against the Cubs.

Paul Foytack won his 12th in the opener from the Tigers at New York, thanks to 2-13 hitless innings of relief from Sleater. Hoeft went all 14-13 innings of the nightcap, losing when Skowron's triple followed a walk to Mickey Mantle with one out in the 15th. Bob Grim won in relief.

Bill Fischer's tidy relief pitching and Larry Doby's two RBIs featured the White Sox victory.

With Williams blasting away to win for George Sucee over Don Mossi, Cleveland's Vic Wertz and Rocky Colavita wasted a big day at the plate. Each slammed two home runs, Wertz driving in five runs, Colavita in five.

Hal Smith's single scored Hec Lopez with the A's deciding run in the nightcap at Washington after Alex Kellner had pitched a five-hitter and helped himself with a home run in the first-game Kansas City victory.

Legion Juniors Lose To Marysville Team

The Washington C. H. Legion Junior nine dropped its sixth decision in eight games here Sunday as they lost to Marysville, 10-5.

The game was close all the way until the eighth inning when a series of errors, mental and otherwise, and several base hits gave the Marysville outfit 5 runs to break the game wide open.

Buddy Snyder was the starting and losing hurler for Washington C. H. After twirling two perfect frames, he apparently weakened and help along by some loose fielding on the part of his mates, left the hill in the eighth. Snyder was constantly victimized by two or three base hits. Bill Herman, in relief of Snyder, was effective in his two inning stint.

Although Jim Smith and Ron Knisley garnered two hits apiece, the best that their mates could chip in with was three safeties,

Three Long Shots, One on Pace Horse

Last Day of Races at Fair Spiced by Close Finishes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Harness horse racing in Fayette County came to a rousing close for the year Saturday afternoon, the final day of the annual Fair.

And, in true "get away day" tradition, it closed with a three-long shots going into the winner's circle, some stirring stretch drives and blanket finishes and some better-than-average times.

Only one race was won in straight dashes; honors in the other three were well spread.

While two of the races drew only two horses, the other two filled the track with them.

If any one of the races could be tabbed the feature of the afternoon, it would have to be the 18 as rod because of the caliber of horses in it and the time, 2:07.2 for the first dash and 2:07 flat for the second.

BIG AXE, entered by the Homer Miller estate and driven by Paul

Norris, was easily the class of the race. He broke at the start or the first dash, but came on to win it with a surge through the stretch with something to spare. He led from wire to wire in the second. I. C. Van, second in the first dash, finished fourth in the second. Mighty Ike, driven by Dudley Moon, who piloted four winners the day before, was second in the first dash after finishing third in the first. The Rendezvous Room trophy went to the Miller team.

But, regardless of the time made in the 18 class trot, it was the 2-year-old pace that captured the fancy of horse-wise Fayette Countians. There were 11 of the youngsters in the big field from which to make a choice.

However, the race was between Go Pilot, owned and driven by Porter Martin of Circlefile, and Fancy Fannie owned by Westcheser Hills Stables of Yonkers, N. Y., and driven by Moon.

Go Pilot was on top all the way to take the first dash with Fancy Fannie second. The bay gelding was out in front again at the start of the second dash, but Fancy Fannie collared him at the half and went on to win in a stretch battle by a half length.

Lady Dudley, owned and driven by Hugh Beatty of Washington C. H., was third in both dashes.

Despite Fancy Fannie's performance in the first dash, she was overlooked in the second and paid off at the juicy odds of $21.60 for $2 to win. This was the third of the three long shots of the afternoon.

The G. D. Baker and Son trophy went to Westchester Hills Stables because of Fancy Fannie's better time—2:12 in the second dash, compared to 2:12.3 by Go Pilot in the first.

THE FIRST long shot of the day came in the first dash of the 10-horse field in the 26 class pace, which was won by a neck by Virginia's Dream in her stretch drive with Abe Volo. She paid a fat $46.80 to win and $20.60 to show before dropping to $4.80 to show.

Virginia's Dream, owned by Harry Hughes of Washington C. H., and driven by Jim Mace of New Holland, was scratched from the second dash, which Rock Brewer, who finished third in the first dash, won easily after leading all the way.

Rock Brewer (E. Dunwoody) $2.60, 3 and 3; Maynard Volo (P. Martin) $4.20 and 5; Abe Volo (E. Ebenbach) $3.80. Also started: Fairchance, Ruby Adam, Victory Square, Terry Moore, Jimmy G. Volo, Maynard Volo, Gene Prince and Fairchance. Time—2:09.2.

Gene Conley Brings Grins To Milwaukee

Braves Retain Lead;
18-Year-Old Pitches
1-Hitter for Cards

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The good burghers of Milwaukee likely will concede the Cardinals have a beauty in Von McDaniel. But if they're beckoning to their own Gene Conley today with their widest grins of the year, who can say they don't have a point?

Almost buried beneath 18-year-old Von's brilliant one-hitter Sunday that touched off St. Louis double-header sweep of Pittsburgh was another big game from Conley that kept the Braves in first place in that torrid National League scramble.

In a month, the 6-8 right-hander, a native Oklahoman like McDaniel, has worked back to the form that made him one of the league's toughest a few seasons ago. His six-hitter enabled the Braves to defeat New York 5-3 and split a double-header with the Giants. It was his fifth victory in his last six decisions—all since he found the combination back on June 26.

With McDaniel's one-hit masterpiece winning the first game 4-0 and Joe Cunningham's 11th-inning homer the second 9-8, the Cardinals chopped Milwaukee's lead to half a game. The Braves had lost the opener to ex-mate Johnny Antonelli's six-hitter 2-0.

Brooklyn, with Johnny Podres winning his ninth, beat Cincinnati 7-2 to move into 1½ games of the top and drop the Redlegs 2½ games behind Milwaukee in a fourth-place tie with Philadelphia. The Phils had a happy day in Chicago, topping the Cubs 3-2 for Curt Simmons' 10th and 7-1 as rookie ace Jack Sanford won his 14th against three losses with a six-hitter.

Chicago's second-place White Sox moved up to within 3½ games of the front-running New York Yankees in the American League, defeating Baltimore 4-3 while the Yanks settled for a split in a 7½-hour double-header with Detroit. Lou Sleater's clutch relief saved the first for the Tigers 6-5, but Bill Skowron's run-scoring triple off a weary Billy Hoeft beat Detroit in a 15-inning nightcap.

Ted Williams, his bat mark up to .376, slammed his 29th homer, a double and two singles to lead a Boston comeback that beat Cleveland 9-8; and Kansas City won twice from Washington, 6-2 and 3-2 in 11 innings.

The Braves broke out with four runs on four hits in the fourth inning to win for Conley. Willie Mays hammered six hits in eight trips, four in the first game.

Gene Baker's double with two out in the second inning was the only hit off McDaniel, who didn't permit another baserunner in running his record to 5-2. Hoyt Wilhelm won his first in relief as the Cards scored three in the nightcap ninth to tie the score and set the stage for Cunningham's winning homer off Nelson King.

Carl Furillo's grand-slam homer, eighth of his career, cost Cincinnati's Brooks Lawrence his seventh loss in 18 decisions and was more than enough for Podres to win his ninth.

The Phils got two RBIs from Gran Hamner in each game and a decisive three-run homer from Ed Bouchee in the second against the Cubs.

Paul Foytack won his 12th in the opener from the Tigers at New York, thanks to 2-13 hitless innings of relief from Sleater. Hoeft went all 14-13 innings of the nightcap, losing when Skowron's triple followed a walk to Mickey Mantle with one out in the 15th. Bob Grim won.

Bill Fischer's tidy relief pitching and Larry Doby's two RBIs featured the White Sox victory.

With Williams blasting away to win for George Susec over Don Mossi, Cleveland's Vic Wertz and Rocky Colavito wasted a big day at the plate. Each slammed two home runs, Wertz driving in five runs and Colavito three.

Hal Smith's single scored Hec Lopez with the A's deciding run in the nightcap at Washington after Alex Kelline had pitched a five-hitter and helped himself with a home run in the first-game Kansas City victory.

Legion Juniors Lose To Marysville Team

The Washington C. H. Legion Junior nine dropped its sixth decision in eight games here Sunday as they lost to Marysville, 10-5.

The game was close all the way until the eighth inning when a series of errors, mental and otherwise, and several base hits gave the Marysville outfit 5 runs to break the game wide open.

Buddy Snyder was the starting and losing hurler for Washington C. H. After twirling two perfect frames, he apparently weakened and help along by some loose fielding on the part of his mates, left the hill in the eighth. Snyder was constantly victimized by two-base hits. Bill Herman, in relief of Snyder, was effective in his final stint.

Although Jim Smith and Ron Knisley garnered two hits apiece, the best that their mates could chip in with was three safeties,

Last Day of Races at Fair Spiced by Close Finishes

Harness horse racing in Fayette County came to a rousing close for the year Saturday afternoon, the final day of the annual Fair.

And, in true "get away day" tradition, it closed with a three-long shots going into the winner's circle, some stirring stretch drives and blanket finishes and some better-than-average times.

Only one race was won in straight dashes; honors in the other three were well spread.

While two of the races drew only horses, the other two filled the track with them.

If any one of the races could be tabbed the feature of the afternoon, it would have to be the 18-as-rot because of the calibre of horses in it and the time, 2:07.2 for the first dash and 2:07 flat for the second.

Athletics Lose To Grove City Lockbourne Wins Its First Game

The Washington C. H. Athletics, who started out like a whirlwind its first year in the Heart of Ohio League, dropped to fifth place in the standing when a last-inning rally failed and they lost to the unbeaten leader, Grove City, here Sunday afternoon by a score of 4 to 1.

It was the seventh loss in 13 games for the Athletics and win No. 12 for Grove City.

A leaky defense, in which six errors were charged to the Washington C. H. boys, was partly responsible for the defeat. But, two of the Grove City runs were earned and that was enough to sew up the victory.

The Athletics scored their one run in the last inning and had the bases loaded when pinch hitter John Matson fanned. Three singles—by Dale Copcock, Alex Wackman and Kenny Robbinet—accounted for the only Athletic run.

Grand Circuit Due At Grandview Oval

CLEVELAND (P)—Grand Circuit racing will feature the harness race meeting at Grandview this week, leading off with the $5,000 L. G. Duffy Cup event for two-year-old trotters tonight. The Hambletonian preview comes up Wednesday, the $10,000 New Zealand pacing event Thursday; and the Little Brown Jug preview on Friday. The Grand Circuit just ended a stand at Vernon Downs, N. Norris, was easily the class of the race. He broke at the start or the first dash, but came on to win it with a surge through the stretch with something to spare. He led from wire to wire in the second. I. C. Van, second in the first dash, finished fourth in the second. Mighty Ike, driven by Dudley Moon, who piloted four winners the day before, was second in the first dash after finishing third in the first. The Rendezvous Trophy went to the Miller estate.

But, regardless of the time made in the 18 class trot, it was the 2-year-old pace that captured the fancy of horse-wise Fayette Countians. There were 11 of the youngsters in the big field from Wilmette the following week.

Redlegs Find
Foes' Hitting Telling Tale

CINCINNATI (P) — The Cincinnati Redlegs are still getting whipped at the Reds' own strong-point—hitting.

Brooklyn's Dodgers managed to hit the right thing at the right time Sunday—bunts, singles, doubles, sacrifices, even a grand slam homer—putting together a 7-2 defeat of the Rhinelander.

"Don't fault the defense on this," said Reds' Manager Birdie Tebbetts after the game. "Defense saves more games for us than it loses."

Tebbetts didn't mention it, but he probably had it in mind on the difficult fourth inning when the Dodgers jammed the bases, setting the stage for Carl Furillo's four-run blast.

The trouble began when Reds' starter Brooks Lawrence issued a walk to Duke Snider. Gil Hodges followed with a twisting grounder that Johnny Temple muffed. Sam Amorus laid a bunt down the third base line that might have gone foul—but didn't—and he scampered safely to first.

Then came Furillo's blast.

Johnny Podres, who went all the way for the Dodgers in his ninth victory, kept an iron check on the Rhinelander until the eighth inning when Ted Kluszewski lifted a pinch-hit homer.

The Dodgers loaded the bases again in the eighth and punched out two insurance markers.

BY RAY BRANDENBURG

Another wedding anniversary rolled around last week. Thirty-six years is quite a spell to live with one woman. Of course, we tried to run her off several times but she just wouldn't run. Then I threatened to elope her but she didn't scare either, so I just made up my mind to live with her. We have traveled many miles to many places in several different countries during the past thirty-six years. We have raised a family of which we are very proud. Our eight grandchildren are the apples of our eye. We've enjoyed the fellowship of our many friends and expect to do so for many years to come. We've had lean years and good years, but, through everything have enjoyed good health, so I just can't find much to gripe about.

We're looking forward to the years ahead with just as much anticipation and expect to enjoy them even more than those that have passed. Looking back, I guess we wouldn't do much differently if we had the job to do over again.

We are proud to be a part of this fine community and will do everything we can to help solve its problems and make it a fine place to live and do business.

Our Fair this year was the greatest. Everyone seemed to be having a good time. The 4-H exhibits, livestock etc., was outstanding. The way those Junior Fair Board members took hold of their jobs is very praise worthy.

Congratulations to all the winners and to the losers — come back next year, try a little harder, with a better pig, lamb or steer and you'll probably win; but even if you don't have a champion, think of all the fine fellowship and fun you have with all the other boys and girls.

As President of the Fair Board, and speaking for them, we want to thank everyone who helped make our Fair such a grand success. It was only through your cooperation and help that it could be that way.

Now you can take time out and come out to Brandenburg's and buy that car you have been thinking about. We are glad to glad to present our new Chevrolets and Buicks — Just try us.

Roy Woodrow Seriously Hurt In Ball Game

Two Hospitalized
In Columbus after
Player Collision

Roy Woodrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodrow of the Jasper-Coll Rd., is in Grant Hospital, Columbus, under treatment for injuries received in a player collision in a baseball game between the Washington C. H. R&S team and Columbus All Stars at Columbus Sunday afternoon.

His condition at mid-morning Monday was described as "fairly good" at the hospital.

Junior Wardle, a Columbus man playing with the Ross & Satterfield team from Washington C. H. for the first time, was the other player involved in the accident. He was released from the hospital about midnight Sunday.

Tom Smalley, manager of the R&S team, said Woodrow's jaw was broken, that he had severe cuts and bruises about his face and a possible concussion. He said Woodrow was still dazed and incoherent when several of his team mates left the hospital Sunday night.

Wardle, he said, received cuts about his face.

The cuts on the faces of both players, Smalley said he presumed, were from teeth when the two came together violently, face to face.

SMALLEY said, it happened like this: John Mental of the All Stars hit fly ball into short left field. Woodrow, playing third base for the R&S team, went back for it and Wardle the left fielder came charging in for it. They charged head on and both players dropped to the ground.

Police were called, but the emergency squad's ambulance was involved in a collision on the way. Then the fire department was called; its ambulance took the two men to the hospital.

The game was called off after the accident, which occurred on the Aquinas High School field, where the two teams were playing their regular Sunday afternoon game in the Southwestern Ohio (SWO) League.

THE ACCIDENT occurred in the fifth inning with one out and the score tied at 7 to 7—thus, the game will either be picked up where it was halted or replayed at a later date.

The injury took the fourth regular out of the R&S lineup this season. Howard Boggs suffered a broken finger in last week's game; George DeWees sprained a wrist while at work and Harold Ross sprained his ankle about a month ago at practice.

In other games in the SWO Sunday, Chillicothe blanked Bloomington, 7 to 0 at Bloomingburg but the game between Milledgeville and Greenfield at Greenfield was postponed because of a muddy field following a heavy rain over that section Saturday evening.

Mainly About People

Dr. N. M. Reiff, who suffered a heart attack at his home on Rawlings St. last Tuesday afternoon, "remains in a critical condition" in Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowers and Mrs. Bowers' uncle, Mr. Thomas Lane, of Gambier, visited the Derby Garden Club flower show in Derby Saturday. Mrs. Bowers is a member of the Washington Garden Club.

Oliver McKinley, 83, of Mt. Sterling is in "fairly good" condition in Memorial Hospital. He was hit in the head with a bottle presumably during a robbery attempt, when he opened his pool room early last Wednesday morning.

Invitations are being extended to friends to attend the piano forte recital by Miss Janice Gillen at 5 p. m. Sunday in the first floor Sunday school room at Grace Methodist Church. After the recital a tea will be served in the Fellowship Hall. Miss Gillen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gillen, 230 N. Delaware St., and a senior student of Mrs. Robert E. Willis.

Nine 4-H club members were elected to the Junior Fair Board at the election held Friday at the Fayette County Fair. These new members will assume their positions with the September meeting of the Fair Board.

sons stoned and burned cars driven by Negroes. Police said about a dozen cars were burned. Stones were thrown at two Chicago Transportation Authority buses, driven by Negroes, but later police rode the buses with Negro drivers.

Police officials said all days off for policemen had been canceled temporarily.

Police described the disturbances as one of the worst racial outbreaks in several years. Major rioting occurred in nearby Trumbull Park housing project when Negroes moved into the white district. A special police detail, which at times numbered several hundred, was moved into the district and the rioting ended.

A 15-year-old white girl was shot in the left ankle. A Negro motorcycle policeman, seeking to arrest a youth who had stoned him, said his gun discharged accidentally when someone jostled him.

Other policemen nearby rescued the motorcycle policeman, William Hunt, from a crowd which witnessed the shooting. The girl, Marilyn Hultquist, was not injured seriously. Hunt suffered a possible fractured nose and injuries to his right eye when he was hit by a brick.

About 10 persons suffered minor injuries in last night's fighting. Only Hunt and Miss Hultquist were hospitalized.

A resident of Kissimmee for the past year where he has worked in real estate, Boyd's condition is reported by the hospital as "fair." Before leaving Washington C. H. he had worked with his father at Boyd Pontiac.

Mrs. C. Glenn McCoy of Bloomingburg, a sister, reports that mail addressed to the Kissimmee Hospital will reach her brother.

Fourteen men and several juveniles were seized by police for questioning in connection with the stone throwing, car burning and fighting. They were held without charge.

Police escorted many Negro motorists through the district. Some white motorists turned on the dome lights in their cars and others tied white handkerchiefs to car aerials.

Roy Woodrow Seriously Hurt In Ball Game

Two Hospitalized
In Columbus after
Player Collision

Roy Woodrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodrow of the Jasper-Coll Rd., is in Grant Hospital, Columbus, under treatment for injuries received in a player collision in a baseball game between the Washington C. H. R&S team and Columbus All Stars at Columbus Sunday afternoon.

His condition at mid-morning Monday was described as "fairly good" at the hospital.

Junior Wardle, a Columbus man playing with the Ross & Satterfield team from Washington C. H. for the first time, was the other player involved in the accident. He was released from the hospital about midnight Sunday.

Tom Smalley, manager of the R&S team, said Woodrow's jaw was broken, that he had severe cuts and bruises about his face and a possible concussion. He said Woodrow was still dazed and incoherent when several of his team mates left the hospital Sunday night.

Wardle, he said, received cuts about his face.

The cuts on the faces of both players, Smalley said he presumed, were from teeth when the two came together violently, face to face.

SMALLEY said, it happened like this: John Mental of the All Stars hit a fly ball into short left field. Woodrow, playing third base for the R&S team, went back for it and Wardle the left fielder came charging in for it. They crashed headon and both players dropped to the ground.

Police were called, but the emergency squad's ambulance was involved in a collision on the way. Then the fire department was called; its ambulance took the two men to the hospital.

The game was called off after the accident, which occurred on the Aquinas High School field, where the two teams were playing their regular Sunday afternoon game in the Southwestern Ohio (SWO) League.

THE ACCIDENT occurred in the fifth inning with one out and the score tied at 7 to 7—thus, the game will either be picked up where it was halted or replayed at a later date, Smalley said.

The injury took the fourth regular out of the R&S lineup this season. Howard Boggs suffered a broken finger in last week's game; George DeWees sprained a wrist while at work and Harold Ross sprained his ankle about a month ago at practice.

In other games in the SWO Sunday, Chillicothe blanked Bloomington, 7 to 0 at Bloomingburg but the game between Milledgeville and Greenfield at Greenfield was postponed because of a muddy field following a heavy rain over that section Saturday evening.

Five Roads in County Set for Improvement

More Fayette County roads are to undergo improvements as quickly as possible as a result of the inspection tour last week by members of the Board of Fayette County Commissioners and County Engineers.

At their meeting in the courthouse Monday morning, the commissioners approved minutes of their action in passing resolutions covering these improvements.

The largest of the improvements to be made before unseasonable weather sets in will be the Palmer Rd. between its intersections with state route 729 and U. S. route 35. This piece of road lies in Union and Jasper Townships.

The commissioners passed resolutions denoting their cooperation with the State Highway Department, which will use federal funds, without payment of interest.
